Rules

1. Points will be collated from the CWRA November, CWRA January, Aoraki, Kawatiri, Otago March and CADRAC Shows.
2. Qualifying classes will be decided once each club has drawn up their schedule. Each club's schedule will be forwarded to a nominated convener before it is distributed publicly, so that the qualifying classes for the series can be chosen and included in each schedule.
3. South Island Buckle points updates will be displayed at these shows and on each club's Facebook page.
4. Results will be taken for each horse/rider combination.
5. Points to be collected using the NZWRF High Point score system 1-6 (90a)
6. Tie breakers to be decided by using rule 89c of NZWRF. If after using this system, a tie still stands, then it is the competitor that has attended the most shows within the Buckle Series.
7. Any disputes will be settled by an independent Central South Island Buckle Series Points Scrutineer.
8. Any complaints/Disputes MUST be lodged within 7 days of the results. All complaints/disputes MUST be in written form and be accompanied by a $25.00 non-refundable fee.
9. The South Island Buckle Series ceremony will be held at the completion of the CADRAC show.
